EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE ORDER

Since 1992, pro se litigant Aaron Stubblefield, aka Walter Wells, has filed at least 20 cases in this Court. Most have been dismissed due to reasons such as failure to state a claim, lack of federal jurisdiction, plaintiff's motion to dismiss, failure to comply with Court orders, and incomprehensible complaints.

Pursuant to the records of the United States Marshals Service, Mr. Stubblefield has created a nuisance in the courthouse in violation of LR83.1, and has violated Title 41 CFR 102-74.390 in creating a disturbance on GSA property.

It is the judgment of the Executive Committee that reasonable and necessary restraints must be imposed upon Mr. Stubblefield's ability to file new civil cases in this District pro se. Cases in existence prior to the entry of this order are not affected by this order and shall proceed as usual.

The Executive Committee further finds that there is sufficient cause for concern regarding Mr. Stubblefield's conduct if he is not escorted while in the Dirksen U.S. Courthouse, therefore

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED BY THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE in its capacity as the supervisor of the assignment of cases, that -----

- 1) Mr. Aaron Stubblefield, or anyone acting on his behalf, is enjoined from filing any new civil action or proceeding in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois without first obtaining leave by way of the following procedures:
  - a) Any materials Mr. Stubblefield, or anyone acting on his behalf, wishes to submit for filing shall be delivered to Room 2050, Office of the Clerk at the Courthouse in Chicago. Only the Clerk or deputies specifically designated by the Clerk may accept such documents.
  - b) Where the document submitted is a complaint, it shall be accompanied by a motion captioned "Motion Seeking Leave to File Pursuant to Order of Executive Committee." That motion shall, in addition to requesting leave to file the complaint, include a sworn statement certifying that the claims raised by or on behalf of Mr. Stubblefield in the complaint are new claims never before raised in any federal court.

- c) Whenever Mr. Stubblefield submits a document for filing, the clerk or designated deputy shall accept the papers, stamp them received, docket them, and forward them to the Executive Committee.
- 2) The Executive Committee will examine any complaints submitted by or on behalf of Mr. Stubblefield to determine whether they should be filed.
- 3) If Mr. Stubblefield seeks leave to proceed in forma pauperis, the Committee will also determine if such leave should be granted. The Committee will deny leave to file any complaints if they are legally frivolous or are merely duplicative of matters already litigated. The Committee may deny leave to file any complaints not filed in conformity with this order.
- 4) If the Executive Committee enters an order denying leave to file the materials, the clerk shall retain the order in a miscellaneous file with the title "In the matter of Aaron Stubblefield" and cause a copy of the order to be mailed to Mr. Stubblefield. The submitted documents shall be returned to Mr. Stubblefield.
- 5) If the Executive Committee enters an order granting leave to file the materials, the clerk will cause the materials to be stamped filed as of the date received and shall cause the case to be assigned to a judge in accordance with the rules. The clerk shall also cause a copy of the order to be mailed to Mr. Stubblefield.
- 6) Mr. Stubblefield's failure to comply with this order may, within the discretion of the Executive Committee, result in his being held in contempt of court and punished accordingly.
- 7) Nothing in this order shall be construed -----
  - a) to affect Mr. Stubblefield's ability to defend himself in any criminal action,
  - b) to deny Mr. Stubblefield access to the federal courts through the filing of a petition for a writ of habeas corpus or other extraordinary writ, or
  - c) to deny Mr. Stubblefield access to the United States Court of Appeals or the United States Supreme Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT to preserve judicial security, a representative of the United States Marshals Service shall accompany Mr. Stubblefield at all times while he is present in the Dirksen U.S. Courthouse at 219 S. Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois, 60604, and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT any password issued to Aaron Stubblefield for access to the electronic filing system shall be disabled.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT the Clerk shall cause to be created and maintained a miscellaneous file with the title "In the matter of Aaron Stubblefield " and case number 15 C 10147. The miscellaneous file shall serve as the repository of this order and any order or minute order entered pursuant to this order. The Clerk will also maintain a miscellaneous docket associated with the file. All orders retained in the file will be entered on that docket following standard docketing procedures. A brief entry will be made on the docket indicating the receipt of any materials from Mr. Stubblefield.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT the Clerk shall cause a copy of this order to be mailed to Mr. Stubblefield at 1143 W. 107th Street, Chicago, Illinois 60643, the address given by Mr. Stubblefield in documents received on October 17, 2015.
